The following roles are cast by audition:

LUCY/LOU - a farmer, black, AFAB non binary trans masc (she/her, then later they/he)

FRANK - a white cis man, Lillian's husband, the saloon owner (he/him)

JOHN - a white cis man, a miner, Sally Ann's husband (he/him)

JAMES - a black cis man, a miner, Jayne's fiancé (he/him)

GEORGE - a black cis man, a farmer, Lucy's husband (he/him)

TOMMY - a cis man, a bandit (he/him)

TOMMY'S TOOTHLESS BOYS - a gang of bandits (he/him)

Casting Preferences

If the character is trans, the actor must be. If the character is queer, the actor must be. Unless their race is specifically stated in the description above the actor does not need to be white.

Actors are encouraged to perform this play in their own accents, despite the 1880s American vocabulary and iconography.

For the roles of the husbands, fiancé, and bandits, we encourage men of all ages to apply

Music

For the actors auditioning for Tommy and Tommy's Toothless Boys we are looking to cast men who can also contribute musically throughout the show.

We would love to know the musical ability of all auditioning (if the triangle is as good as it gets, don't worry, it's not a deal breaker!).

What to Prepare

- A monologue up to 2 minutes that best captures the spirit of the role for which you are auditioning.
- Show us your musical prowess by presenting something you feel is appropriate to the spirit of the play.

To book an audition

- Please send your headshot, bio or CV to sirentheatre@notmail.com with COWBOIS in the subject line;
- The character for which you are auditioning; and if there is a preference for time of day for your audition (morning/afternoon or get more specific!)
- Your email will be acknowledged and any questions answered. You will be allocated a time.
